

6516208736.txt

leave xm radio alone. there is no reason that i can think of why they should not be allowed to air local weather and traffic on xm radio, it would be a valuable tool for us xm satelite listeners. if broadcasters feel threatened by this let them get involved in the right way, and start offering a solutionb of their own instead of trying to stop others. they need to look for a solution, not be part of the problem.